

- tax-attractive option for companies based in Switzerland, regardless of the size of the company, who carry out qualified research and development on site;
- Relief of own patent costs and research and development costs - Reduction of income up to a maximum of 90 percent;
- Responsibility lies with the Cantons in Switzerland, which issue permits upon request;
- in addition to patents, so-called "comparable rights" (such as topographies and plant varieties) may also be considered in a patent-box;
- Patent-box is possible from 1 January 2020;
- For detailed information we are at your disposal. Inquiries at office@rosenich.com Subject: Patent-box